Chef Judson Todd Allen to make appearance at the 15th annual Portland Jerk Festival

WHERE: Portland, Jamaica | WHEN: July 5th, 2015

Held in the birthplace of jerk cuisine, The Portland Jerk Festival is the Caribbean's largest food celebration.

Chicago native, International Celebrity Chef, Judson Todd Allen, headlines the festival, where he will fuse his trademark bold flavors with traditional authentic Jerk. This will be Judson's second visit to the island as part of The Melting Pot Movement*™. Following the festival, the Food Network Alum is excited to share his new jerk inspired healthy recipes with his clients including executives from NBC and corporations including Walgreens and the African American Film Critics Association (AAFCA), as well as moguls in entertainment such as national radio and TV talk show host Steve Harvey, along with Emmy® Award winning Casting Director Robi Reed of Black Entertainment Television (BET) and the Reed For Hope Foundation (RFHF). Known as the 'Architect of Flavor®', Chef Judson's mission is to design powerhouse flavors that change the way people think and feel about healthier foods. Learn more at www.JudsonToddAllen.com

The Melting Pot Movement is a platform through which Kyu Melange (Q-Mey-Longe) executes its social mission. Kyu Melange is a luxury fashion and lifestyle company based in New York.*
